

Wolf Advancement Ceremony

CM: When a cub joins a Cub Scout Pack, he earns the badge of the Bobcat and starts on an upward trail. This trail will lead him through the footsteps of the tiger, wolf, the bear, and the Webelos, and onwards to the highest honor of Cub Scouting, the Arrow of Light. Tonight, we honor those Scouts who have made a significant advancement along this journey. Would the following Scouts and their parent please come forward.

Read Scouts names.

CM: Please recite with me the Scout Oath:

CM & Cubs: On my honor I will do my best to do my duty to God and my country and to obey the Scout Law; to help other people at all times; to keep myself physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight.

CM: You have worked hard with your Den and your parents to fulfill the Wolf requirements. You are now ready to wear the sign of the Wolf.

CM: The blue is from the sky. The blue on your forehead is to remind you to do your best on the Cub Scout Trail. (Paint a small circle on the scout's forehead.)

CM: The yellow is from the sun. The yellow marks under your eyes will help you see the light of the Cub Scout Trail, and symbolize the bright spirit of Cub Scouting. (Paint a yellow U under each eye.)

CM: The red mark on your chin is stands for fire so that you have a burning desire to explore new areas. (Paint a vertical stripe on the scout's chin.)

Wolf Cubs, remember the meaning of your Wolf paint. It shows that you are ready to move along the upward trail of Scouting. I will present your badge to your parent who will pin it to your uniform when you go back to your seat.

Now we will hand you your parent's pin to present to your parent who has helped you on your trail.

Please join me in congratulating these boys in their achievement.
